LITERATURE & THE MIND
SCHEDULE OF EVENTS
SPRING 2014

MIND LIT UP! SPRING SOCIALIZING, FUTURE PLANNING
Wednesday, April 2, 3:00-5:00pm, Collaborative Research Commons (CRC)

LITERATURE AND THE MIND READING GROUPS
Monday, April 14, 3:30-5:00pm, South Hall 2635: Discuss selections from Martha Nussbaum’s Political Emotions: Why Love Matters for Justice (2013).

Monday, April 28, 3:30-5:00pm, South Hall 2635: “Biography as Care,” with Emma Letley (psychotherapist and biographer, King’s College London), author of Marion Milner: The Life (Routledge, 2013). Readings pre-distributed.

Monday, May 12, 3:30-5:00pm, South Hall 2635: Discuss selections from Martha Nussbaum’s Political Emotions: Why Love Matters for Justice (2013).

LIT & MIND AND IHC “VALUE OF CARE” EVENTS
Thursday, April 24, 4:00pm, McCune Conference Room: John Hamilton (Comparative Literature, Harvard University), “Procuratores: On the Limits of Caring for Another,” followed by IHC reception.

Friday, May 9, McCune Conference Room: “First Responders: Care in Literature, Art, and Psychoanalysis,” www.ihc.ucsb.edu/first-responders-conference.